Sheryl - This is the job that we forgot to put on the list in January because it was never suppose to be a soil job. Well they called us today saying they need two days worth of tests starting tomorrow. It's suppose to rain so it probably won't go but the days are already covered on the submittal from 10/9/03. I went ahead & put it on the same schedule for additional days submitted 10/27/03 in case it carries over into November. Hope this isn't too confusing. Call if you have any questions.
