Subject: Prairie Island Director, Site Operations

Discussion:

NMC announced the appointment of Richard Graham to the new position of Director, Site Operations for Prairie Island Nuclear Generating Plant. Graham, who is currently NMC's fleet Outage Director, will begin his new duties in January, 2004.

Graham joined NMC as fleet Outage Director in August 2001. Prior to that, he was with the Braidwood Nuclear Plant near Chicago and the South Texas Project near Houston. He served in operations management positions at both sites, most recently as operations manager at Braidwood. He was also involved with outage planning and execution at both sites.
