2. Rulemaking Website: Access to public comment - NRR review of comment libraries.

NRR has provided each project manager with the comment dockets for the rulemaking actions and petitions for which he or she is responsible. NRR expects that the project officers will have their review of the dockets completed before the April meeting.

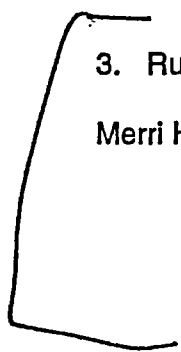

We noted that the Commission has not yet issued final guidance.

Both NMSS and NRR urged that ADM discuss reopening the public libraries with OEDO once we have completed our review of the comment libraries for potential security impacts, regardless of whether the Commission guidance has been finalized.

3. Rulemaking Process Improvements - status report.

Merri Horn and Bill Huffman summarized task force activity over the past month.

The RPI project is now behind schedule. Despite continuing efforts, the Task Force has not yet been able to schedule a meeting with the Commissioners' Assistants. The
