

From: sromano <sromano@americanecology.com>
To: "Paul Goldberg" <PFG@nrc.gov>
Date: 2/25/03 11:33PM
Subject: RE: NRC Assured Isolation Storage Survey

You are correct -- not belongs in last sentence for consistency. Thanks for reading carefully!

>===== Original Message From "Paul Goldberg" <PFG@nrc.gov> =====

>Steve,

>Am I right in believing that a "not" dropped out of your last sentence? You wouldn't want to spoil that decisive tone.

>

>>> sromano <sromano@americanecology.com> 02/24/03 09:39PM >>>

>I guess we must. I'm in San Diego at Ward Valley trial.

>

>Our response to the survey is that US Ecology has no interest in participating >in development of an AIF facility, or exploring its feasibility. US does not >believe there is a viable commercial market for an AIF, and does believe large >generators would choose an AIF over self-storage or permanent disposal.

>

>

>>===== Original Message From "Paul Goldberg" <PFG@nrc.gov> =====

>>Steve,

>>The attachment is just the survey without any answers. Do we have some kind of software mismatch?

>>

>>> sromano <sromano@americanecology.com> 02/21/03 05:22PM >>>

>>Paul -- US Ecology's survey response is attached. Best, Steve