Desc: All document transfer forms, lists, or other records that provide information regarding which licensing records were transferred from the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC) to the State of Colorado after Colorado became an Agreement State for uranium recovery facilities in 1968.
 Currently, the NRC uses Form 519, "Transfer of Official NRC Records to an Agreement State" for this type of records transfer. I would imagine that the AEC used similar records transfer forms to document the transfer of AEC records to the Colorado Department of Health.
