SUBJECT: Future U.S. NRC Meeting with Westinghouse in Regard to AP1000 Aerosol
Deposition Analysis

Dear Mr. Segala:

A meeting will be held at the NRC offices in Rockville, MD the week of April 12, 2004, with members of the NRC staff for the purpose of discussing the Westinghouse AP1000 aerosol deposition analysis. At this meeting, we will be discussing details of the calculations, including methodology and design details, which we consider proprietary to Westinghouse Electric Company. Therefore, we request that this meeting be closed to members of the public.

Attached please find our Application for Withholding and Affidavit pertaining to the proprietary subject matter that will be discussed at the upcoming meeting.

Please contact me at 412-374-4728 if you have any questions concerning this submittal.

Very truly yours,

R. P. Vijuk, Manager
Passive Plant Engineering
AP600 & AP1000 Projects

Proprietary Information Notice

Transmitted herewith are proprietary and/or non-proprietary versions of documents furnished to the NRC in connection with requests for generic and/or plant-specific review and approval.

In order to conform to the requirements of 10 CFR 2.790 of the Commission's regulations concerning the protection of proprietary information so submitted to the NRC, the information which is proprietary in the proprietary versions is contained within brackets, and where the proprietary information has been deleted in the non-proprietary versions, only the brackets remain (the information that was contained within the brackets in the proprietary versions having been deleted). The justification for claiming the information so designated as proprietary is indicated in both versions by means of lower case letters (a) through (f) located as a superscript immediately following the brackets enclosing each item of information being identified as proprietary or in the margin opposite such information. These lower case letters refer to the types of information Westinghouse customarily holds in confidence identified in Sections (4)(ii)(a) through (4)(ii)(f) of the affidavit accompanying this transmittal pursuant to 10 CFR 2.790(b)(1).

Copyright Notice

The documents transmitted herewith each bear a Westinghouse copyright notice. The NRC is permitted to make the number of copies of the information contained in these reports which are necessary for its internal use in connection with generic and plant-specific reviews and approvals as well as the issuance, denial, amendment, transfer, renewal, modification, suspension, revocation, or violation of a license, permit, order, or regulation subject to the requirements of 10 CFR 2.790 regarding restrictions on public disclosure to the extent such information has been identified as proprietary by Westinghouse, copyright protection notwithstanding. With respect to the non-proprietary versions of these reports, the NRC is permitted to make the number of copies beyond these necessary for its internal use which are necessary in order to have one copy available for public viewing in the appropriate docket files in the public document room in Washington, DC and in local public document rooms as may be required by NRC regulations if the number of copies submitted is insufficient for this purpose. Copies made by the NRC must include the copyright notice in all instances and the proprietary notice if the original was identified as proprietary.
