P.O. Box 4591

Dear Dr. LeVan:

Thank you for inviting me once again to speak at the annual international conference which your Foundation sponsors or co-hosts in Hanoi. I am afraid that the topic of this year's conference, "Head and Neck Cancers and Other Neurological Diseases," is so highly specialized that it lies far outside both the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission's mandate and my scope of expertise. I must, therefore, respectfully decline your invitation to participate this time.

May you have good attendance and much success with the conference. Please be assured that NRC remains interested in opportunities to interact with Vietnam as it moves forward with its nuclear program. I hope that you will think of us again if the focus of the conference turns back to broader aspects of nuclear safety and security or radiation protection.

Sincerely,
