Subject: Supplementary Electronic File Materials for NRC Accession Number ML040780930

Reference: PacTec Letter, March 12, 2004, Application for a Certificate of Compliance for the TRUPACT-III Shipping Package, Revision 0, Docket No. 71-9305,

Dear Sirs,

The referenced submittal consisted of seven paper copies and one electronic copy comprised of PDF files representing the basic Safety Analysis Report and the Payload Requirements and Compliance Document. These documents are now posted to the NRC electronic reading room as Accession Number ML040780930.

In addition, the referenced submittal transmitted two DVD's containing finite element results reported in Appendix 2.10.1 plus one CD containing thermal analysis files representing Appendix 3.6.1. These three electronic media contained both ASCII text data files and binary result files.

This transmittal provides two CDs comprised of PDF files corresponding to the ASCII data files contained in the three electronic media described in the above paragraph. The binary files may be viewed only with the software used for their generation (ANSYS, LS-DYNA, SINDA/FLUINT). These binary files may be found on the three electronic media transmitted by our referenced transmittal of March 12, 2004.

Very Truly Yours,

Packaging Technology, Inc.
