Scott:

Enclosed are the marked-up pages to NEI 03-12 Revision 1 that reflect changes based on exceptions taken in the NRC's endorsement letter. I am also enclosing a CD with the entire NEI 03-12, marked-up consistent with hard copy enclosure.

Also, I am providing what I believe was the final list of exceptions annotated to show which changes we incorporated and those that are not incorporated. I would like to discuss the definition of Bullet resisting with you before making change to that particular part of the document.

As discussed on the phone, we will formally transmit this package to you Monday. If you have any questions or believe missed any chances please call and we can include in Monday's package.

Regards,

Doug Walters
