Subject: May Davis-Besse meeting

Good afternoon Jan,

I am presently reading the first 20 pages of this meeting and am quite disappointed at the lack of information available to Mr. Grobe. For example, on page 19 he asked about data on breakers, which apparently were not serviced in 5 or 6 years and were NOT serviced on time when due now. Here is the response:

Person 1: "Jack, I don't have specifics. Jim or Barry, do you have specifics on that?"

Person 2 "No, I don't."

Person 3 "I'm not sure..."

This is pathetic. The vice president, and the plant manager don't have the information and do not offer to have a telephone call made right then, before the end of the meeting, to get the results.

What I expect is for them, first of all, to know the answer. If they don't, I would expect people in their position to be able to make a call from a cell telephone to somebody in their organization who does.

Thank you,

Tom Gurdziel

Were they able to provide the information eventually?

This is "stalewolling"
