PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(3), enacted into law by section 3 of the Privacy Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-579), the following statement is furnished to individuals who supply information to the Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) on NRC Form 148. This information is maintained in a system of records designated as NRC-21 and described at 65 Federal Register 56429 (September 18, 2000); or the most recent Federal Register publication of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission's "Republication of Systems of Records Notices" that is available at the NRC Public Document Room, 11555 Rockville Pike, Rockville, MD, or located in the NRC's Agencywide Document Access and Management System (ADAMS).

- AUTHORITY: Pub. L. 104-193, Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996; 5 U.S.C. 6334 (1996); 31 U.S.C. 716, 1104, 1108, 1114, 3325, 3511, 3512, 3701, 3711, 3717, 3718 (1996-2000); Executive Order 9397, November 22, 1943.
- PRINCIPAL PURPOSE(S): To claim compensation for official authorized personnel services rendered by government consultants.
- ROUTINE USES: Information on this form is used for transmittal to the U.S. Treasury for payment. It may also be disclosed to the IRS, State and local taxing authorities, Social Security Administration, labor unions, insurance carriers, OPM, or charitable institutions concerning any authorized withholdings or deductions. Information may be disclosed to an appropriate Federal, State, local, or Foreign agency in the event the information indicates a violation or potential violation of law and in the course of an administrative or judicial proceeding. In addition, this information may be transferred to an appropriate Federal, State, local, and Foreign agency to the extent relevant and necessary for an NRC decision about you or to the extent relevant and necessary for that agency's decision about you. Information from this form may also be disclosed, in the course of discovery under a protective order issued by a court of competent jurisdiction, and in presenting evidence, to a Congressional office to respond to their inquiry made at your request, or to NRC-paid experts, consultants, and others under contract with the NRC, on a need-to-know basis.
- WHETHER DISCLOSURE IS MANDATORY OR VOLUNTARY AND EFFECT ON INDIVIDUAL OF NOT PROVIDING INFORMATION: It is voluntary that you furnish the requested information; however, failure to supply the information may result in the denial of your claim for compensation. The social security number (SSN) is used to accurately maintain an individual's records by confirming their identity.

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(3), enacted into law by section 3 of the Privacy Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-579), the following statement is furnished to individuals who supply information to the Nuclear Regulatory Commission on NRC Form 148. This information is maintained in a system of records designated as NRC-21 and described at 58 Federal Register 36469 (July 7, 1993); or the most recent Federal Register publication of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission's "Republication of Systems of Records Notices" that is available at the NRC Public Document Room, Gelman Building, 2120 L Street NW, Lower Level, Washington, D.C.

1. AUTHORITY: 31 U.S.C. 716, 1114, 3325, 3511 (1988); Executive Order 9397, dated November 22, 1943.

2. PRINCIPAL PURPOSE(S): Information entered on this form is used to secure payment for authorized claims for compensation of services rendered by government consultants.

3. ROUTINE USES: Information on this form is used for transmittal to the U.S. Treasury for payment. It may also be disclosed to the IRS, State and local taxing authorities, Social Security Administration, labor unions, insurance carriers, OPM, or charitable institutions concerning any authorized withholdings or deductions. Information may be disclosed to an appropriate Federal, State, local, or Foreign agency in the event the information indicates a violation or potential violation of law and in the course of an administrative or judicial proceeding. In addition, this information may be transferred to an appropriate Federal, State, local, and Foreign agency to the extent relevant and necessary for an NRC decision about you or to the extent relevant and necessary for that agency's decision about you.

Information from this form may also be disclosed, in the course of discovery under a protective order issued by a court of competent jurisdiction, and in presenting evidence to a Congressional office to respond to their inquiry made at your request, or to NRC-paid experts, consultants, and others under contract with the NRC, on a need-to-know basis.

4. WHETHER DISCLOSURE IS MANDATORY OR VOLUNTARY AND EFFECT ON INDIVIDUAL OF NOT PROVIDING INFORMATION: It is voluntary that you furnish the requested information. If the information is not furnished, you may be denied an identification badge and access to NRC controlled areas.
