Eddie - I have learned that, based on lessons learned from discussions with Dominion, Cliff has substantially changed the seismic RAI so he thinks it would be better to wait until we can send you the revised RAI before having a phone call. The revised RAI is currently under review here and we expect we should be able to send it to you within the next few days. Therefore, I suggest we hold off scheduling the call until you have had a chance to see the revised RAI.
OK?
Nan

Tuesday afternoon is probably best for us, maybe around 1:30 pm. That should give us plenty of time before the 3 pm whistle...
If this works, let me know and we will set up a conference number.

Thanks.

Cliff Munson (lead seismic reviewer) is now only available next Monday or Tuesday for a call, then he is out the rest of the week. Best times for me are between 9:30 and 3:00. I need to avoid Monday afternoon from 2-3pm. Do either of these days work for you all?
