

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS
FOR THE FIRST CIRCUIT

No. 04-1145

CITIZENS AWARENESS NETWORK, INC.

Petitioner

v.

UNITED STATES; UNITED STATES NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION

Respondents

Briefing Notice
Entered: March 8, 2004

The record on appeal now being complete with the filing of the administrative record, or certified list, petitioner's brief must be filed by 4/19/04. Unless petitioner is proceeding in forma pauperis, an appendix also must be filed by 4/19/04.

The deadlines for filing appellee's brief and appellant's reply brief shall run in accordance with Fed. R. App. P. 31 and Loc. R. 31. Counsel are advised that extensions of time are normally not allowed without timely motion for good cause shown.

The parties should particularly review the following Federal and Local Rules of Appellate Procedure (pursuant to FRAP 20, in these rules "appellant" includes a petitioner or applicant, and appellee" includes a respondent):

- | | |
|---------------------|---|
| Loc. R. 28 | An addendum must be attached to appellant's brief. Addendum must contain a copy of each judgment, order, or ruling being appealed, along with any supporting opinion, memorandum issued by the judge or magistrate judge. Please note that if the appeal is from a decision reviewing an underlying agency, bankruptcy, or state court decision, the underlying decision must also be included. |
| Loc. R. 11 and 28.1 | Briefs are public documents and will not be sealed absent timely motion. Sealed documents, such as presentence reports or criminal statements of reason, must not be included in the addendum or appendix, but must be filed as a separate volume clearly marked "SEALED." |
| FRAP 32(a)(5) | Acceptable typeface for briefs:
Proportional typeface: 14 point Times New Roman or CG Times; or Monospaced typeface: 12 point Courier or New Courier. Sans-serif font, such as Arial, may not be used. |

- FRAP 32(a)(7) If principal brief exceeds 30 pages or reply brief exceeds 15 pages, brief must include a certificate of compliance with type-volume limitations.
- FRAP 32(a)(2) Except for filings by pro se parties, the cover of appellant's brief must be blue; the appellee's, red; and any reply brief, gray. The cover of the appendix must be white.
- FRAP 31(b) Number of Copies:
Loc. R. 31(b) Parties not proceeding in forma pauperis: 9 paper copies and a disk containing the entire contents of the brief. 5 paper copies of the appendix.
Parties represented by court-appointed counsel: 4 paper copies and a disk containing the entire contents of the brief. An appendix is NOT required.
Pro se parties proceeding in forma pauperis: 4 paper copies. An appendix is NOT required
- Loc. R. 32 One copy of the brief, cover-to-cover, must be filed on a 3 1/2" disk in either DOS WordPerfect or WordPerfect for Windows, 5.1 or greater.
- FRAP 30 The appendix must be page numbered and contain a
Loc. R. 30 table of contents. If the parties are unable to agree as to the contents of the appendix, they must follow the procedure outlined in Fed. R. App. P. 30(b) and Local Rule 30(b).

Failure to file a brief in accordance with the Federal and Local Rules of Appellate Procedure will result in rejection of the brief and may lead to dismissal of the appeal. Loc. R. 3 and 45.

Tips on filing briefs and appendices, and the First Circuit Rulebook, containing the Fed. R. App. P., Local Rules and Internal Operating Procedures, is available on the court's website:
www.cal.uscourts.gov.

Richard Cushing Donovan, Clerk

cc: Jonathan M. Block
Charles E. Mullins
John Ashcroft
Steven F. Crockett
E. Leo Slaggie
John F. Cordes Jr.
Stephen M. Kohn
Ellen C. Ginsberg
Michael A. Bauser
Robert W. Bishop