

1/2

From: Ron Parkhill
To: Bernard White
Date: 2/13/03 2:48PM
Subject: Re: Fwd:

No- it is still an action for SNL to complete. They need to round the nose of the simulated landing gear to see if that eliminates the discontinuity and add realism to the model. In fact didn't you tell Ken this specially over the phone the ohter day?

>>> Bernard White 02/13/03 02:39PM >>>
Ron, Did you get this answered when we had our meeting the other day?

>>> Ron Parkhill 02/05/03 09:34AM >>>
SNL is being a little vague wrt to the hard object impact onto the cask. Last week they were adamant that the bolts () However, they need to round the impact point of the landing gear to get a complete run and ad realism to the the impacting object- hopefully

Ex2

>>> Bernard White 02/05/03 07:05AM >>>
Sandia's proposed path forward on completing the Airplean study for HI-STORM.

Bernie

CC: Adelaide Giantelli; Antonio Dias; Christopher Bajwa; Daniel Huang; Earl Easton; Elaine Keegan; Jack Guttman; Mahendra Shah; Robert Shewmaker; Stephanie Bush-Goddard

Portions Ex2

E/100