Abstract: As part of completing the travel process, the traveler must file travel vouchers and trip reports. The respondent universe for the forms includes consultants and contractors and those who are invited by the NRC to travel, e.g., prospective employees. The information collected includes the name, address, social security number, and the amount to be reimbursed. Travelers do not receive a travel advance, but are paid on a reimbursement basis only. Guidance on allowable travel expenses can be found in the General Services Administration (GSA) Federal Travel Regulations (FTR) and in NRC Management Directive 14.1, Official Temporary Duty Travel.
