Dear Mr. Temps:

Recently, REVISS Services Inc. submitted a description of our QA program for approval. With the paper copy of the description, we enclosed a CD-ROM with a Microsoft Word file of the description. We understand that the CD-ROM was damaged, therefore, we are enclosing another copy.

Although our letter of December 9, 2004 stated that a check for $2,100.00 was enclosed, it was not. Our check number 3222 in the amount of $2,100.00 has been enclosed with this letter.

Please accept our apologies for the inconvenience.

Regards,
