Subject: RE: ASME PVP04 Papers

Allen,

We are in a bit of a bind trying to complete all of the analyses and associated documentation we currently have on our plate. As such, we were wondering what the latest possible date is that we can provide you with the finished paper for the following to abstracts.

"Thermal Response of Various Spent Nuclear Fuel Transportation Cask Designs to the 2001 Baltimore Tunnel Fire Event"

"Spent Nuclear Fuel Structural Response When Subjected to an Impact Accident"

In addition, we will have to postpone a paper till next years conference as we are not far enough along in the analyses to draw firm scoping conclusions. It is entitled "Structural Response of a Spent Nuclear Fuel Transport Cask Subjected to a Limiting Accident".

I sincerely apologize for the inconvenience.
