Jim,

I sent you an email at about 9:00 a.m. this morning authorizing you to sign on my behalf. That one must be lost in cyberspace somewhere.

In any event, please sign the stipulation for me on behalf of the NRC.

Thanks,
Jared

Jared,

I noticed that on the attached e-mail I did not list your correct e-mail address so you probably didn't receive it. I now have authorization from AL and John to sign the Stipulation. Now all I need is an e-mail authorization from you to sign the Stipulation on your behalf. Please let me know if you have any questions. Thanks.

Re: Joint Motion to Terminate Proceedings

Jim:

Yes, I just discussed this with Mike Healy and he authorized you to sign for SFC on his behalf. Thanks.

Re: Joint Motion to Terminate Proceedings

AI:

As you know, the Joint Motion to Terminate Proceedings has been filed with the NRC. I would like to file the Stipulation To Dismiss with the 10th Circuit Court of Appeals tomorrow. I've talked to Jared Heck and he has no problem with me signing the dismissal on his behalf and on behalf of John Bryson of the Justice Department as long as you agree. I could also sign on your behalf if also agreeable to you but I noticed that Micheal Healy of your office filed an entry of appearance and I did not see one filed by you. Please let me know about signature authority and confirm in an e-mail message.
