DIAGNOSTIC RADIOLOGY WITH SPECIAL COMPETENCE IN NUCLEAR RADIOLOGY

Initial Certification 1990 -- Lifetime (G)

(G) is General Certification, (S) is Subspecialty Certification

If the results show "lifetime," these certificates were granted prior to time limited certificates being issued and such individuals thus have lifetime certificates. Some physicians voluntarily choose to be re-examined and may obtain a subsequent certification; however, should the recertification expire, and no new certification is obtained, the physician may revert to the lifetime certificate. This is why you may see dates for the same certificate after "lifetime."

I am pleased to inform you that on February 18, 2004, the Radiation Safety Committee for Washington University and Medical Center granted approval for you to be an Authorized User for Routine Radiopharmaceutical (P-32, Sm-153 & Sr-89) Therapy. You were also approved to possess for training only Y-90 SirSpheres (90 mCi/ order & 500 mCi/year with a 200 mCi possession limit). Approvals were granted based on written request by Eric E. Klein for Routine Radiopharmaceutical authorization (dated February 9, 2004), and on written request by you for possession of SirSpheres (dated February 12, 2004). With this approval, your medical use authorization is amended to include the following categories, with change noted in bold:

- Low Dose-Rate brachytherapy (including remote afterloaders) and I-131 thyroid carcinoma therapy
- High Dose-Rate (Ir-192) remote afterloading brachytherapy
- Gamma Knife (Co-60) Radiosurgery therapy
- Novoste Beta-Cath (P-32) Intravascular Brachytherapy
- Routine Radiopharmaceutical (P-32, Sm-153 & Sr-89) Therapy
- Possession for training only on SirSpheres (Y-90) – no medical use allowed

Your use of byproduct materials is authorized under the Washington University and Medical Center NRC License No. 24-00167-11. All other radioactive materials are authorized under Missouri State Registration No. 2793.

Please note that you are only authorized for those categories listed above. Each category has specific requirements for training and experience, and some have requirements for periodic retraining. It is your responsibility to obtain the required retraining. If you want to seek authorization for any of the other categories or check your retraining status, please contact Eric Klein.

Please call me at (314) 362-2988 if you have any questions concerning this amendment to your medical use authorization.
