Ray:

I am happy with all names you mentioned.. I want to make sure the inspector point of view is properly captured...let me take care of this...right now.

The only item you may want to consider is whether any of the panelists that are invited might be objectionable for some reason unknown to me. Erasmia has the call on the panelists, and the names I've heard so far are John and Alan, possibly Gareth, possibly Charlie Payne (Eva is working on this - Eva or Peter Koltay could serve if we can't get an inspector, or even Phil), Ron Laughery (of Micro Saint fame), and myself if another PSA person with fire experience can't be found from within (my preference is not to sit on the panel, but allow "fresh" thoughts, but I will do so if needed). The date will be 3/29.
