OFFICE OF SECRETARY
RULEMAKINGS AND ADJUDICATIONS STAFF

Dear Sir:

It has just come to my attention that the NRC is considering withdrawing the necessity for a fire code for nuclear plants.

Although my source is impeccable, I would question my own sanity before believing such a course of action could be under advisement by the only regulatory body to have top jurisdiction over these devices, with all their known potential for deadly mischief.

So am I crazy, or what?

Are you?

Please give me the courtesy of a reply. Surely there's a misunderstanding.

Sincerely yours,

Joy Joslyn MacNulty
