Regulatory Affairs Organization Changes

Effective May 2, 2005, Ronnie L. Gardner is appointed Manager, Site Operations and Regulatory Affairs for Framatome ANP. Jerald S. Holm, who has served as Acting Director, will continue in his position as Manager of Product Licensing in Richland, Washington. Gayle F. Elliott will continue in her position as Manager of Product Licensing in Lynchburg, and Sandra M. Sloan will remain as Manager of Product Licensing with new reactor licensing as her primary responsibility. Jerry Mauck will continue to support I&C engineering.

All correspondence will be issued from and should be addressed to the same Lynchburg address to the attention of Ronnie L. Gardner.

Jerry Holm will continue to be the single point of contact for all regulatory activities, including those associated with Framatome ANP (US), the B&WOG, and new plant licensing. Licensing work for all business units of the company will be served by this organization, including nuclear engineering, electrical and I&C engineering, fuels engineering, nuclear services, and project management.

Responsibilities associated with the management of Part 21 determinations, identification of proprietary information, the preparation of affidavits, the submittal of topical reports, responses to RAIs, and the statement of Company positions on policy issues, rulemaking, and regulatory interpretations will be developed by and issued from the regulatory affairs office.

Sincerely,

Tom Christopher, President and CEO
