To Whom It May Concern:

The Lucent Technologies Radiation Safety Officer (RSO), Zella Sasnett, is no longer employed by Lucent Technologies. We have designated Richard Quick, CIH, CSP, as the new RSO. Richard has a BS degree from Rutgers University in Environmental Science and a MS degree from Temple University in Occupational Safety and Health. He has completed an Ionizing Radiation course at Rutgers University. Richard has been employed by AT&T/Lucent for over 17 years and is currently the Lucent Corporate EH&S Health and Safety Senior Manager.

Lucent Technologies will also be utilizing the outside consulting services of John Riley to support Richard Quick in his role as the RSO. John is a former Lucent employee and has extensive experience with the Ionizing Radiation Program at Lucent. He has over 30 years of experience in nuclear science and was a previous RSO for Lucent. He is already very familiar with the requirements of the Lucent program covering licensed materials.

Please replace Zella's contact information in your records with Richard Quick's as follows:
