Re: Delegation of Authority: Radiological Compliance Program

Roger Moroney has been appointed Head of Radiological Compliance for PETNET Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (PETNET), effective May 23, 2005. In this capacity, Roger serves as the Corporate Radiation Safety Officer (CRSO) with responsibilities for the safe use of radioactive materials and radiation producing machines, and transportation of radioactive materials. The CRSO is responsible for managing the corporate radiation protection program, identifying radiation protection related issues, initiating, recommending, or providing corrective actions, verifying implementation of corrective actions, and ensuring compliance with regulations. The CRSO is hereby delegated the authority, organizational freedom, and management prerogative to:

1. Provide leadership in all areas of radiological compliance and safety;
2. Establish and facilitate implementation of the radiological compliance related programs and policies, and procedures;
3. Foster the corporate ALARA program and radiological safety culture;
4. Have unhampered access to all activities at PETNET facilities involving radioactive materials and radiation producing machines, and any other relevant organizational units to identify radiation protection related issues;
5. Immediately stop, without coordination with management, any activity involving the use of licensed materials by any user that might result in an unsafe situation or a violation of NRC/Agreement State/DOT requirements;
6. Initiate, recommend, or implement appropriate corrective actions;
7. Verify the implementation of actions taken to correct radiation protection related issues and promote a continuous improvement program; and
8. Coordinate the Corporate Radiation Safety Committee (RSC) activities.

All employees of PETNET Pharmaceuticals, Inc. have a critical responsibility in ensuring the safe use of radioactive materials. "The health and safety of our employees, customers, and community will never be compromised."

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Thomas E. Welch", written over a large, stylized oval flourish.

Thomas E. Welch
Vice President of Operations
PETNET Pharmaceuticals, Inc.
