Ronda,

Attached is information from Tom Scarbrough concerning the steam dryer analysis audit at GE's DC office that is scheduled to start on 8/22. Please let me know if you have any questions or need further information.

Note, Tom has listed me as a potential participant, however, I do not expect to attend.

thanks,

Rick

Subject: Audit of Vermont Yankee Steam Dryer Analysis (August 22-25)

Rick,

As we discussed, Brian Hobbs of Entergy called today to confirm the planned audit on August 22 to 25 of the Vermont Yankee steam dryer analysis at the GE office at 1299 Pennsylvania, Ave, NW, Suite 1100 West, in Washington, DC.

The audit will begin at 1 pm on August 22 at the GE office, and end by noon on August 25.

The tentative agenda is as follows:

August 22/23: Load definition and uncertainty analysis, and scale model issues

August 24: CFD analysis

August 25: Remaining items and exit meeting

We might conduct parallel audit discussions if more efficient.

In response to my question, Brian Hobbs said he would check on the status of Entergy's response to NRC Engineering Inspection Report 2004008, dated December 2, 2004, with respect to closing out the MOV program issues.

NRC staff and contractors who might participate at all or a portion of the Vermont Yankee steam dryer audit include:

NRC

Eugene Imbro, Kamal Manoly, Thomas Scarbrough, Cheng-Ih Wu, Patrick Sekerak, Christopher Boyd, David Terao, Thomas Alexion, Andrey Turilin, and Rick Ennis

NRC contractors

Argonne National Laboratory: Vik Shah, Steve Hambric (subcontractor from Penn State) and, by teleconference, Thomas Mulcahy
McMaster University: Dr. Samir Ziada

Thanks.
Tom
