Re: Reply to Notice of Violation
Docket No. 03033922
License No. 45-25346-01

The referenced docket number violation is being address by HDH Associates, P.C.

We inadvertently let our employees HAZMAT training expire due to a change in personnel. To correct this over site we have obtained the services of an environmental training company that is licensed in the Commonwealth of Virginia to provide the required hazardous material training to applicable employees on September 1, 2005.

We will forward certification as soon as full compliance is achieved.

Sincerely,
