Dave,

I spoke to the allegor last night. He initially stated that he desired to use the licensee's employee concerns program (ECP) to resolve his issue. He has already been interviewed by the ECP and is waiting for their feedback. When he initially reported the issue to the Sr. Res. Insp. (SCHOPPY), he was unaware that it would go this far (to OI). I explained that SCHOPPY really had no other choice and was obligated to follow the NRC process.

The allegor had a number of questions about the allegations process that I thought you could better address. I provided him with your phone number and he may call you tomorrow (9/13/02). Bottom line is that he did not desire to be interviewed at this time and wanted to wait for the ECP to respond to his issue. He indicated that if he was not satisfied with the ECP response, he may want to follow through with the allegation.

I'm willing to sit in on the call. I'll be in the office all day Friday.

Thanks,

Bob Rzepka
