On January 6, 2005, one licensee employee tested positive for cocaine on a random drug/alcohol test. The licensee employee was denied access. The licensee employee was provided the opportunity to appeal the denial through the Nuclear Management Company appeal process. The licensee employee requested an analysis of the split specimen. Results of the test confirmed the positive results for cocaine. The licensee employee access remains denied.

On April 15, 2005, one licensee supervisor tested positive for alcohol on a for-cause drug/alcohol test. The licensee employee was denied access. The licensee employee was provided the opportunity to appeal the denial through the Nuclear Management Company appeal process. The licensee employee requested to have a blood alcohol test completed. Results of the blood test confirmed the positive alcohol results received from the breath alcohol test. The licensee employee was granted unescorted access after satisfactory management and medical assurance was obtained regarding the individual's fitness-for-duty.
