SOUNDS FINE - NO CHANGE NEEDED. IT WAS MORE OF A QUESTION THAN A REQUEST TO CHANGE THE LETTER. SOME HOW IN THE TRANSLATION FROM JIM L. IT TOOK ON THE TONE OF A SUGGESTION TO CHANGE SOME LANGUAGE.

THANKS, LISA

Lisa,

For Comment #2, we struggled with the same question earlier, but decided that it would be less problematic if we didn't provide a guess as to the basis for the licensee's "subjective" choice of words, as it would provide Mr. Lochbaum an opportunity to second guess our guess at a later time. We just didn't think it would help for us to provide our subjective assessment as to why the licensee provided their subjective characterization. If you don't have a problem, it would be our preference not to say anything additional.
