OFFICE OF THE
ASSISTANT SECRETARY
FOR MINERAL RESOURCES

Sir:

The attached copy of a communication to one of your employees may have a peculiar interest to you in view of all the circumstances:

- 1) Senator John Pastores remarks at the recent convention in Atlantic City.
- 2) The passing of one Robert Peabody.
- 3) Your statutory responsibilities in connection with airborne surveys by your Geophysics branch.

Will you advise?

Sincerely,

Signature

ELLIOTT EARL

The Honorable Stearns Udial
Secretary of the Interior
Washington, D.C.

P.S.: Our mutual good friend Senator Thomas Dodd and Lister Hill understand the objectives of the Institute...although they are not honorary members they should be...because they help like Section 274 of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 as amended which we originally started on its way Were there any environmental surveys? If so by whom and when?
