

DOCKET NUMBER
PROPOSED RULE PR 26
(70 FR 50442)

5

I believe some people need less sleep than others. The 48 hour average per person is very low. As of now the industry can force you to work up to 72 hours. A person can work over 72 hours if they volunteer and it is to get someone out of forced overtime. Why not make it so a licensee cannot force someone to work over 48 hours, but an individual can volunteer to work up to 72 hours in a week if it gets another individual out of a forced overtime situation.

That's it, Thanks

Guy Galster
