Dear Sir/Madam

PECO Energy's Byproduct Material License No. 37-06752-06 expires January 31, 2006 and we request that it be terminated. All of our older EC cells were transferred in August of 1999 to the US Ecology license no. R-01037- B04 for the state of Tennessee. We currently own 5 detectors that are covered under Perkin-Elmer Life Sciences General License for model no. N610-0063. If you have any questions or require additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.
