NRC FORM 591M PAR (10-2003) 10 CFR 2.201	Т 3	SAFETY INSPE	Information CTION REPORT CE INSPECTION	U.S. NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION
1. LICENSEE		2. NRC/REGIONAL OFFICE
The Bryn Mawr Hospital 130 South Bryn Mawr Avenue Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania 19010			U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission Region I, 475 Allendale Road King of Prussia, Pennsylvania 19406-1415
REPORT NOS 2005-002
3. DOCKET NUMBER(S)		4. LICENSE NUMBER(S)		5. DATE(S) OF INSPECTION
03003094		37-07722-04		December 22, 2005
6. INSPECTION PROCEDURES USED		7. INSPECTION FOCUS AREAS		8. INSPECTOR
87131		03.01(H), 03.06, 03.07		DJanda/SGabriel
SUPPLEMENTAL INSPECTION INFORMATION
1. PROGRAM CODE(S) 02230	2. PRIORITY 2	3. LICENSEE CONTACT Marchello Barbarisi, M.D., RSO		4. TELEPHONE NUMBER 610-526-8695
Temporary Jol	o Site	PROGRA	M SCOPE
administrations of Region I to discu events. Both inv nuclear medicine occurred (April 2 performance and	of the wrong diagnos less these administration olved administration e technologist (NMT) 003-April 2004), lice I took actions to add	spection limited to a tic radiopharmaceuti ions and to confirm to of Tc-99m MDP ins was the same for bo nsee management v ress these problems	review of the circum cal. In October 2005 that they did not requi- tead of the intended oth administrations. If was aware of multiple The licensee termin	estances surrounding two 5, licensee management contacted aire reporting to the NRC as medical radiopharmaceutical. The injecting In the time frame that these events e problems with the NMT's nated the NMT's employment in definition of a reportable medical management sta concerns in Octo a meeting on De	ited that the Radiation ber 2005. The licen cember 22, 2005. T	on Safety Committee see's RSC discusse he licensee impleme	(RSC) did not review d a written report sun ented a policy requirir	d in 2003-2004, however licensee w them until an employee raised nmarizing the two administrations at ng documentation and review at the ven if it is not reportable to the NRC.
2005, involving a	a different injecting N	MT. The health phy	sics consultant prepa	harmaceutical occurred in March ared a written evaluation which was hition of a reportable medical event.
Within the scope	of this inspection, n	o violations were ide	entified.	