

EDO Daily Note

During the week of May 1, 2006, EDO staff will review and issue a direct final rule that amends 10 CFR 50.71(b) so that licensees and each holder of a construction permit need not submit annual financial reports, including the certified financial statements, to the Commission. The EDO is also amending 10 CFR 72.80(b) so that ISFSI licensees need not submit annual financial reports, including the certified financial statement, to the Commission. This rulemaking applies only to licensees who file financial reports with the SEC or the FERC.
