Subject: UCS letter to NRC about long overdue

Good Day:

Attached is an electronic version of a letter placed in the mail this morning to the NRC Chairman and Commissioners. A former nuclear worker went to the NRC nearly 18 months ago with allegations, including one that her termination was in retaliation for having conveyed safety concerns to senior management. Despite internal procedures that specify allegations to be addressed within 180 days and investigations to be completed within 18 months, the NRC has yet to announce a decision on this matter.

"Justice delayed is justice denied." Chalk up another case of NRC denying justice to a nuclear plant worker. That brings the score to about three zillion and forty eight to zero.

Thanks,
