the allegor also called me last night and asked about the meeting; i responded that it went pretty well and gave her a brief summary. the call lasted 7 or 8 minutes. I mentioned that i did not intend to endorse or approve the plan; we would look for results. Sorry for not emailing this info sooner.

- PROTECT APPROPRIATELY -

Allegor called to get my opinions about the meeting yesterday. I just told her that it prompted a number of questions on our part and that we were currently discussing those issues to determine how it would affect our follow-up efforts.

She asked me if I knew who Rich Dunn was and if I had seen him at the meeting yesterday. I told her that I didn't know who he was so I couldn't have recognized him. She told me that he was a union member who was sitting with Charlie Hassler, the main union rep. at the meeting. She told me that she had heard some information third-hand about Mr. Dunn's interface with the IAT. She told me that Mr. Dunn ran into one of the people from the IAT who was doing interviews and asked "Am I on your list?" The IAT member looked at the list of names and responded, "No." Mr. Dunn then purportedly took the list and looked at it and replied to the IAT member, "These are all the "YES" people." The Mr. Dunn supposedly provided the IAT member with a list of 27 "real" issues that the IAT should be looking into and told him "These are what you should be following up on."

She also asked if I knew that Hope Creek was shutting down for an approximate 10 day outage that would interface with the upcoming Salem refueling outage. I told her that I wasn't aware of all those details but that I was sure that Randy and the folks in DRP were well aware.
