Thanks Gil. Fish & Herb is covering transcripts this week. Herb is covering startup this weekend and into next week at HC.

By schedule it looks like you can cover the next two weeks on transcripts since we are done early on the development of the OC written exam. Exam week is April 19th.

You do need to work with Fish, today on PB requal results/SDP analysis..

I should be able to incorporate validation comments into the OC written exam today which would make me available most of next week to review transcripts.
