Rereading Roy's letter, I am wondering again if I should challenge him on his challenge..... he is not at all subtle. He is flat saying he was taking care of things and, as a consequence, NRC didn't need to send the letter.

I am going to let it cool for a while longer and then engage him in an appropriate way.

I will ask for your thoughts over the next few days.

The important thing here is that they do a thorough job of finding out what they have..... I just hope Anderson's comment doesn't throw the whole place into a "hunker down"/ defensive state. "Us against them" kind of stuff.

Let's make sure the residents watch for this.

allegor is now criticizing Roy's letter....
...we could have expected this.
