Mr. Stevens,

The entire application is avail at the link you show below. It appears that the original document was produced using Adobe 7, sometimes that version does not play well with others. I have found that if I close the TOC on the left side of the document and use the one in the document itself, the document links do work.

In addition, the entire document can be accessed using ADAMS and copies saved on your hard drive.

If all else fails, I can send you a CD of the application that we have given out at public meetings.

Please let me know how this works out for you.

Sir/Madam:

The web page for the Oyster Creek LRA, at

<http://www.nrc.gov/reactors/operating/licensing/renewal/applications/oystercreek.html#application>

--contains a link for the application, but to only a single PDF for the TOC through Section 2.5. Can the rest be made available?
