Anne,

I saw the e-mail, but I am not knowledgeable on the status of the Merrifield briefing of today.

A recent e-mail from OCA (Raeann Shane) indicates that the Congressional staff briefing will likely occur at 11:30 am tomorrow (Friday), which I presume is Eastern Time.

I am working on a draft of the Communications Plan and will have ready for the morning.

Thank you,

Steve

Did you see this - I just got to it in my mail. I talked to undine late this afternoon - she did not say anything about the Merryfield briefing. I can only assume that it took place - but I'll follow up with Pete on Friday.
