Indian Point Energy Center

A152

Daily Status Report

December 16, 2005

Operational Status

Indian Point Unit 2 is operating at 100% and has been online 377 days.

Indian Point Unit 3 is operating at 100% reactor power and has been on-line for 73 days.

Energy Information Administration Sees Increased Nuclear Capacity

U. S. nuclear generating capacity is expected to hit 109 gigawatts by 2030 according to DOE's Energy Information Administration. EIA attributed 6 GWs of the additional capacity to newly built power reactors, the construction of which it said would be stimulated by the Energy Policy Act of 2005, and the remaining 3 GWs of new power to uprates at existing nuclear plants. New reactors expected to be added to the U.S. grid in 2014 and beyond will be the first new power reactors ordered in the country in more than 30 years, EIA said. This is the first time that EIA has projected in its annual outlook that there will be construction of new U.S. nuclear plants.
