1 Good. I just want to welcome everyone to
2 the call today. I really appreciate your
3 participation. The subject of the phone call is the 4 2.206 Petition received from Terry J. Lodge (phonetic)
5 counsel for Petitioners. There are five
6 organizational and 30 individual petitioners.

7 The parties request NRC take enforcement
8 action against Palisades Nuclear Plant by terminating
9 the use of two independent spent fuel storage
10 installation concrete pads. The Spent Fuel Project
11 Office is responsible for review of the petition and 12 Ray Wharton, as we mentioned, is the petition manager.

13 The 2.206 process is a mechanism in NRC
14 regulations for members of the public to request NRC
15 action when there's an issue involving safety. We 16 have a management directive, that's Management
17 Directive 8.1 that we follow in implementing the 18 process. And the purpose of this meeting is to allow 19 the petitioners to address the petition review board.
20 This is an opportunity for the petitioners to provide 21 additional explanation or support for their petition.
22 The representatives of the licensees, subject of the 23 petition, may ask questions of the petitioner to 24 clarify their understanding of the petition and allow 25 them to respond to it in writing.

1 Any of the parties may ask questions of
2 the PRB concerning the process. We will not discuss
3 the merits of the petition. Following the phone call
4 today, the PRB will meet to determine whether the NRC
5 accepts the petition under the 2.206 process or 6 whether it will be dealt with under another mechanism.
7 The PRB's meeting today will. Not determine whether we 8 agree or disagree with the petition. That will just 9 come later in our process.

10 The phone call, as I mentioned, is being 11 recorded and will be converted to a transcript and 12 treated as a supplement to the petition. Now, we'd 13 really appreciate limiting questions to those that are 14 clarifying in nature. We do not want debates on the 15 merits of the petition today. If the PRB decides that 16 the petition will be considered on 2.206, then what 17 will follow is an acknowledgment letter. If we do not 18 accept the petition, we will document that decision in 19 a letter to the petitioner.

20 The Petition Manager will keep the 21 petitioners and subjects periodically informed on the 22 progress of the petition and I invite you to comment
23 or ask any questions on the process that I've just 24 discussed. I believe the Petition Manager will have 25 provided you information on this process already.

1 MR. KEEGAN: Michael Keegan. Let me
2 state for the record that we just got informed late
3 yesterday of the phone bridge, so the expectation that 4 we're going to be participating and adding additional 5 items is quite shortly. I mean, we've had less than 6 24 hours notification on this.

7 MS. FEDERLINE: Okay, I'm sorry about 8 that.

9 MR. WHARTON: For the record, Michael, let
10 me just state that I've been trying to reach Terry
11 Lodge for the last week. I've called him every day,
12 sometimes multiple times a day since last Tuesday and 13 he returned my phone call yesterday afternoon and 14 that's the reason that you're only finding out about
15 this, it's because I had no contact with the counsel
16 for the Petitioners.

17 MS. FEDERLINE: Well, I don't want to put 18 anybody at a disadvantage, ff there's not been time to 19 prepare for this call. Michael, how would you like to 20 proceed? Would you rather that we -- we would like
21 to go ahead, if at all possible, but if you feel you
22 haven't had time to prepare --

23 MR. KEEGAN: Well, I'd like to proceed
24 with the caveat that we have an opportunity to add
25 pertinent information. If I feel we're getting blind-

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 sided here -- you're asking us to make our case and we
2 just were alerted to is yesterday. There is certified
3 mail, there is e-mail, there is phone calls. So there
4 are ways of making contact with an attorney.

5 MR. WHARTON: And I tried two of those 6 three.

7 MR. KEEGAN: Okay, but I guess I would go
8 forward under protest basically.

9 MR. WHARTON: Let me just say, when I
10 spoke to Terry yesterday and I tried to walk him
11 through the process, and I explained to him what the 12 purpose of the phone call was, well, I told him we 13 were having a meeting and I invited him to participate
14 by way of a telecon if he felt a need to. And I told 15 him the purpose of it was to provide any clarifying
16 type of information that he felt might be needed for 17 the petition or the accompanying declaration and he 18 stated that he thought the declaration was very, very 19 clear and he thought that the petition was also 20 pointed and he really did not think that there would 21 be any clarifying information that he would need to 22 provide.

23 However, he did want to have an 24 opportunity to participate in the telecon. And for 25 that reason, we're holding it.

NEAL R. GROSS

COURT REPORTERS AND TRANSCRIBERS
1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 MS. FEDERLINE: Yeah, let me be clear,
2 that the reason for today's meeting is really not to 3 discuss or debate the petition, but really to provide 4 an opportunity for everyone to add any additional 5 information. The board will be meeting after this
6 call just to decide if it meets the requirements of a
7 petition.

8 MR. KEEGAN: Well, again, we don't have
9 the opportunity to have our attorney here. He is in 10 court and I would proceed with this proceeding under 11 protest that we would like to be able to add at a
12 later time, to this conversation.

13 MR. GOLDBERG: You will have that 14 opportunity. You can add material in writing. If 15 necessary, we can have another meeting by phone and 16 you'll be able to discuss matters.

17 MR. KEEGAN: Prior to the decision?

18 MR. GOLDBERG: Yes.

19 MS. LONGO: There are two decisions.
20 First of all, there's a decision whether to accept the 21 petition and if it is accepted, a decision on the 22 merits.

23 MR. KEEGAN: Uh-huh.

24 MS. LONGO: Is that clear? All the 25 purpose of today's call is to permit you an

NEAL R. GROSS

COURT REPORTERS AND TRANSCRIBERS
1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 opportunity to provide any additional information you
2 wish to provide before it is decided whether or not
3 the petition meets the criteria for acceptance of the 4 2.206.

5 MR. KEEGAN: And what I'm saying is that
6 we would like the opportunity to add to the record
7 prior to you making a decision whether it's picked up
8 or not and we don't have that opportunity now because 9 of the late informing.

10 MS. FEDERLINE: Could we agree that any 11 materials supplementing this call would be provided in 12 the next week?

13 MR. KEEGAN: Yes, we can agree to that.

14 MS. FEDERLINE: Okay, that sounds very 15 reasonable. Again, you know, this is a process that 16 we feel we want the process to be fair to all parties.
17 So let's proceed with the call.

18 MR. HIRT: Could I ask one question,
19 please? How soon would we receive a transcript of 20 this phone conversation?

21 MR. GOLDBERG: It should be in less than 22 a week.

23 MR. WHARTON: Who is speaking? Who asked
24 the question?

25 MS. HIRT: Alice Hirt, I asked --

1 MR. WHARTON: No, I heard the question.
2 I just wanted to identify who it was. Okay.

3 MR. KEEGAN: Well, again, Keegan here.
4 I'd like to have the transcript in hand before we 5 close the record because we're going forward without 6 legal counsel at this moment.

7 MR. WHARTON: Well, is it possible, do I
8 need -- this is Ray Wharton, the Petition Manager
9 again. So I need be interfacing exclusively with your 10 counsel or should I be potentially trying to give 11 someone else some information?

12 MR. KEEGAN: Our counsel is our counsel
13 and that's who information should be going to, but --

14 MS. HIRT: E-mail is the best way to 15 communicate.

16 MR. WHARTON: And I have done that. We're
17 going to caucus for just a moment.

18 (Pause)

19 MR. KEEGAN: Alice, are you there?

20 MS. HIRT: Yeah, do we have an opportunity
21 to caucus also?

22 MR. KEEGAN: Yeah, I guess so.

23 MR. KARCH: I'd like to suggest that we
24 have a week after we receive the transcript.

25 MS. HIRT: Yeah, we need to see the

NEAL R. GROSS

COURT REPORTERS AND TRANSCRIBERS
1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 transcript.

2 MALE PARTICIPANT: He's saying the
3 transcript would be available within a week. That 4 could mean five or six days of the week that they're 5 giving us. So we need a week after we receive the 6 transcript.

7 MS. HIRT: And I'm sorry, but I do not
8 believe that Terry had overlooked this for a whole
9 week.

10 MS. TREMBLE: No, we need to make sure
11 that that guy's got the right e-mail address.

12 MS. HIRT: Yes, or -- yes, that's a good
13 way of putting it, Kay.

14 MR. KEEGAN: Shall I raise that, then?

15 MR. KARCH: Yeah.

16 MS. FEDERLINE: Hello.

17 FEMALE PARTICIPANT: Hello?

18 MS. FEDERLINE: Yes, we want you to be
19 comfortable with the process. We have two options.
20 Would you prefer us to reschedule the call or the 21 other option is we can agree to give you a week to 22 provide additional information after you receive the 23 transcript.

24 MR. KEEGAN: We'll go with that second
25 option. We've caucused also. So we will get a week

NEAL R. GROSS

COURT REPORTERS AND TRANSCRIBERS
1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 after we receive the transcript?

2 MS. FEDERLINE: Yes.

3 MR. KEEGAN: Okay, that's acceptable.

4 MS. FEDERLINE: Yes, okay, well, we want
5 you to be comfortable with the process.

6 MS. HIRT: Thank you.

7 MS. FEDERLINE: Okay. Let's proceed. Let 8 me ask the spokesman for the Petitioners if you have 9 any points related to whether this should qualify as 10 a petition that you would like to make in today's 11 call.

12 MR. KEEGAN: I have no additional points
13 at this point. We're taking a listening posture, as 14 I say. We were just informed last night.

15 MS. FEDERLINE: Okay. Does anyone else on 16 the call have any questions, clarifying questions?

17 MR. LEWIS: Dave Lewis, NMC's counsel. I
18 don't.

19 MR. GOLDBERG: Let me ask the
20 representatives of the Petitioners, have you had a
21 chance to look at our Management Directive that Ms.
22 Federline mentioned that describes the process so that 23 you'll know what we're actually looking for in a
24 petition?

25 MR. KEEGAN: We have not seen an e-mail or

NEAL R. GROSS

COURT REPORTERS AND TRANSCRIBERS
1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 documents to that effect.

2 MR. GOLDBERG: All right, well, we'll make
3 sure we get you copies of that. If there are people
4 other than Mr. Lodge that we should send these things
5 to, please let us know, give us postal addresses and 6 e-mail addresses and if necessary, phone numbers and 7 we'll see if we can get the material to them.

8 MR. KEEGAN: We'll provide those for you.

9 MS. LAHTI: That information is on the NRC
10 web page. That's where I saw it.

11 MR. GOLDBERG: Yes, it is, that's true.

12 MS. FEDERLINE: If it would be useful to 13 you, I can ask that the criteria be summarized here.

14 MR. KEEGAN: Certainly. Well, a summary
15 would be good but the full text would be better.

16 MS. FEDERLINE: Absolutely, we'll point
17 you -- we'll send you an e-mail and point you to it on 18 the web but for now I'm going to ask Paul Goldberg
19 just to briefly summarize the criteria.

20 MR. KEEGAN: Okay.

21 MR. GOLDBERG: Okay, this if from
22 Management Directive 8.11, Review Process for a 10 CFR
23 2.206 Petitions. And the criteria for reviewing 24 petitions under this rule are as follows. The 25 petition contains a request for enforcement related

NEAL R. GROSS

COURT REPORTERS AND TRANSCRIBERS
1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 action such as issuing an order, modifying, suspending
2 or revoking a license, issuing a notice of violation,
3 with or without a proposed civil penalty, et cetera.
4 So your petition has to contain that.

5 The facts that constitute the bases for 6 taking the particular action are specified. The 7 petitioner must provide some element of support beyond
8 the bare assertion. The supporting facts must be 9 credible and sufficient to warrant further inquiry.
10 Next one, there is no NRC proceeding available in 11 which the petitioner is or could be a party and for 12 which the petitioner's concerns could be addressed.
13 If there's a proceeding available, for example, if a
14 petitioner raised an issue that he or she has raised 15 or could raise in an ongoing licensing proceeding, the 16 staff will inform the petitioner of the ongoing
17 proceeding and will not treat the request under 10 CFR
18 2.206.

19 Now, on the other side, we have criterias
20 for rejecting petitions and I'll summarize those also.
21 We'll reject the petition if the incoming
22 correspondence does not ask for an enforcement related
23 action or fails to provide sufficient facts to support
24 the petition but simply alleges wrongdoing or 25 violations of NRC regulations or existence of safety

NEAL R. GROSS

COURT REPORTERS AND TRANSCRIBERS
1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 concerns. Next, if the petitioner raises issues that 2 have already been the subject of NRC staff review and 3 evaluation, either on that facility or other similar
4 facilities, or on a generic basis for which a
5 resolution has been achieved, the issues have been 6 resolved and the resolution is applicable to the 7 facility in question.

8 Next, the request is to deny a license
9 application or amendment. This type of request should 10 be addressed in the context of the relevant licensing
11 action. And the final criteria for rejecting
12 petitions is if the request addresses deficiencies
13 within existing NRC rules, this type of request should 14 be addressed as a petition for rulemaking.

15 MS. FEDERLINE: So that summarizes the 16 criteria that we will be using. Paul was reading
17 directly from the Management Directive, so I think
18 that gives you a fairly good idea. We will e-mail you
19 the link on the website so that you can have that to 20 look at more carefully.

21 Okay, if there's no other discussion, I
22 think that's probably all we can accomplish for today,
23 but as I say, we will mail you that link and as we 24 agreed, we'll provide you a copy of the transcript and 25 you'll have a week beyond that to submit any

NEAL R. GROSS

COURT REPORTERS AND TRANSCRIBERS
1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 additional information that you would like.

2 MS. HIRT: Do you have e-mails and
3 addresses for us?

4 MR. GOLDBERG: No, we don't. We just have
5 information for Mr. Lodge.

6 MR. KEEGAN: We'll tell Mr. Lodge to
7 provide you with the information on the Petitioners.

8 MS. FEDERLINE: That would be helpful.

9 MR. KEEGAN: Okay, but I'm not clear on 10 anything that's occurred. I thought we were going to 11 discuss whether it met criteria or not.

12 MS. FEDERLINE: This was your opportunity
13 to address the criteria. I apologize if there was any 14 misunderstanding but it was an opportunity for the 15 petitioners to provide any additional information. We 16 realize you have already done that in the petition,
17 but this is just an opportunity. It's a courtesy to 18 all the parties involved to have an opportunity to 19 express any additional information or to ask any 20 clarifying questions for the other parties.

21 MR. KEEGAN: Well, could you inform me if 22 there are any criteria that we have not met?

23 MR. GOLDBERG: Well, we haven't made that
24 decision yet. We haven't looked at it in those terms.

25 MS. FEDERLINE: This was an opportunity

NEAL R. GROSS

COURT REPORTERS AND TRANSCRIBERS
1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 for you to provide any information addressing the 2 criteria in addition to the written information that 3 we've received so that we could consider it in our 4 discussion.

5 MS. HIRT: Could I request that you put
6 this, what you just said in writing to us so that we 7 could see what the purpose of this phone call was,
8 please, so that we could respond completely?

9 MS. FEDERLINE: That is -- you will find
10 that in the process, in our Management Directive and 11 we're going to send you a link on the -- to the 12 website where you can read about our complete process,
13 2.206 process.

14 MR. RULAND: Could I add one thing? This
15 is Bill Ruland speaking. Often -- let me not say 16 often, sometimes when we afford the petitioner the 17 opportunity for this phone call, they don't take it
18 up, don't take us up on it. They feel that they've 19 provided sufficient information their application
20 that, in fact, makes the case that there is -- this is 21 a valid 2.206.

22 All this phone call is for is an
23 additional courtesy by the NRC to kind of reach out to 24 the petitioner to see if there's any additional 25 information they want to provide us. So, I don't want

NEAL R. GROSS

COURT REPORTERS AND TRANSCRIBERS
1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 you to get the impression that somehow we're trying to 2 put you on the spot. Rather, it's just an additional 3 safeguard that the NRC has placed in this process to 4 go beyond what you've already provided in writing.

5 And it's unfortunate that this
6 communication between -- you know, your own
7 communication -- you know, we haven't been able to 8 communicate effectively in this matter. So I'd just 9 ask you to consider the way these phone calls work and 10 consider them in the spirit they're intended.

11 MR. KEEGAN: But the record is still open.
12 This is Keegan speaking.

13 MS. FEDERLINE: Yes, yes, we agreed that 14 you can provide any additional information with 15 respect to whether you meet the criteria to be
16 considered as a petition for a week beyond the time
17 you receive this transcript.

18 MR. KEEGAN: Well, that's acceptable with 19 myself. Let me check with my other parties.

20 Ms. Hirts?

21 MS. HIRTS: Yes.

22 MR. KEEGAN: Ms. Tremble?

23 MS. TREMBLE: Yes.

24 MR. KEEGAN: Mr. Karch?

25 MR. KARCH: Yes.

1 MR. KEEGAN: Very good, then we'll accept
2 that and keep the record open.

3 MS. FEDERLINE: Okay, good.

4 MS. HIRTS: Mike, let's just make sure
5 they know how to communicate with Terry from this
6 point forward, with our counsel.

7 MR. KEEGAN: Okay, very good.

8 MS. FEDERLINE: If your counsel could send 9 us an e-mail with the pertinent information about how 10 to reach him and also who additionally needs to be 11 copied on any information that's sent.

12 MS. TREMBLE: Who should he send it to?

13 MS. FEDERLINE: The Petition Manager, Ray
14 Wharton.

15 MR. KEEGAN: Very good.

16 MR. WHARTON: My e-mail address is 17 lrw@nrc.gov.

18 MR. KEEGAN: Very good.

19 MR. WHARTON: My phone number is 301-415-
20 1396.

21 MS. KEEGAN: Very good.

22 MS. FEDERLINE: Let me ask if any other
23 participants in the call would like to make any 24 comments or ask any questions.

25 MR. LEWIS: This is Dave Lewis, NMC's

1 counsel. Could I ask the petitioners if they could
2 copy NMC on any further submissions they make to just 3 save us the burden of trying to dig them up and have
4 the delay. If it's possible when you e-mail anything
5 to the NRC, if could copy Jonathan Rogoff (phonetic)
6 and myself, it would be very much appreciated and 7 Terry Lodge has those e-mail addresses.

8 MR. KEEGAN: I can't commit to that, I
9 don't know the legal implications, but I can make that 10 request of Terry Lodge.

11 MR. LEWIS: Just my request, please.

12 MR. KEEGAN: Okay, this again was --

13 MR. LEWIS: David Lewis.

14 MR. KEEGAN: -- David Lewis requests --

15 MR. LEWIS: Just a copy, myself and
16 Jonathan Rogoff on anything you submit, if it's 17 possible.

18 MS. FEDERLINE: And, of course, we will
19 make materials publicly available.

20 MR. KEEGAN: Pertaining to this 2.206
21 petition.

22 MR. LEWIS: Yes, please.

23 MR. KEEGAN: I just wanted to clarify
24 that, okay.

25 MS. FEDERLINE: Anyone else have any

1 comments or questions?

2 MS. HIRT: Could I ask, where did you say
3 the criteria that you summarized this morning, where 4 is that available now today on the web?

5 MR. GOLDBERG: It's in the Management
6 Directive 8.11. Had you found that already on the 7 web? You said you'd seen some of the material.

8 MS. LAHTI: This is Lauri Lahti. I was
9 the one that mentioned it.

10 MR. GOLDBERG: Oh, I'm sorry. Yeah, it's 11 on our website. As Ms. Federline said, we'll send you
12 the link for that. It's Management Directive 8.11.

13 MS. HIRT: Okay.

14 MR. GOLDBERG: Our website, our general
15 website is nrc.gov.

16 MS. FEDERLINE: If you go to the home page
17 it will give you a selection of -- I believe if you
18 select NRC documents or NRC guidance, you'll be able 19 to find it.

20 MS. HIRT: Okay, thank you.

21 MS. FEDERLINE: Anybody else? Well, once
22 again, I want to thank everybody for participating in 23 the call today. Sorry for any confusion but I think 24 we're on a path now. So thank you very much for your 25 participation.
