Hi Betsy,

I'm sorry I didn't get back to you sooner, but sometimes I get a little sidetracked by the chaos that goes on around here!

I've attached a list in .pdf format. It's the best I can do without access to the device and source registry. I've put a lot of sources in there that we don't normally use, but need authority for because we do a lot of intercomparisons for clinical research purposes.
