Projected Content for CROSSFLOW Topical Report Revision

As a result of operating experience and product evolution since the introduction of the CROSSFLOW Ultrasonic Flow Measurement System, Westinghouse Electric Company LLC (Westinghouse) and Advanced Measurement Analysis Group, Inc. (AMAG) have recognized a need to revise the CROSSFLOW licensing basis topical report, CENPD-397-P-A, Rev. 1*. This attachment provides information regarding the projected content for a revised CROSSFLOW topical report. Below is a high level description of the nature of the revisions anticipated at this time. Following this high level overview is an annotated version of the existing topical report Table of Contents indicating where and what type of change, if any, is anticipated at this time.
