

01/28

Region III

- On January 23, staff attended an Exelon briefing of the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency (IEPA) regarding the Braidwood Tritium contamination. The briefing presented IEPA with topics to be covered in a meeting with residents near the Braidwood facility on January 26, where Exelon will report the current status of characterizing the tritium contamination and remediation progress. The staff plans to attend the January 26 meeting.

R

01/28

m-46