Dear Joe:

It is with a mixed sense of regret and enthusiasm that I write to inform you of my resignation from Engelhard Industries, D. E. Makepeace Division, to accept a position with a metallurgical research and development company in the Boston area.

Effective January 23, 1961, will you please direct all correspondence concerning inquiries, contracts, and other administrative subjects to Mr. Philip A. Anderson who will assume my duties.

I have sincerely enjoyed the opportunity offered by our mutual business interests to work with you and look forward to the prospect of continuing our acquaintance.

Kindest regards,
