Tim and Deborah,

Attached is an organizational chart for the NEF at the senior management level for both the operational and construction perspective for your review prior to the August 10, 2006 meeting. Also attached is the biographical information for the key players in both elements of the organization. The organizational chart reflects the structure as of Friday, July 28. There is another small organizational change in the construction area coming out soon and I will send you updated information and biographical information when I get it.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or need additional information.

Thanks,

Jim Freels
