NRC FORM 591M PAR' (10-2003) 10 CFR 2.201		PORT AND	U.S. NUCLEAR REGULATION COMPLIANCE INSPECTION	JLATORY COMMISSION
LICENSEE/LOCATION INSPECTED: Digirad Imaging Solutions, Inc. Bemus Point, New York (several locations in the Northeast U.S.) REPORT Nos 2005-002			2. NRC/REGIONAL OFFICE U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission Region I, 475 Allendale Road King of Prussia, Pennsylvania 19406-1415
3. DOCKET NUMBER(S		JMBER(S)	5. DATE(S) OF INS	PECTION
03035802	31-30666-0		June 28 -Octo
Nuclear Regulatory Comrof procedures and repres X	nission (NRC) rules and regulations and the entative records, interviews with personnel, a inspection findings, no violations were ideation(s) closed. (s), specifically described to you by the insepetitive, and corrective action was or is be to exercise discretion, were satisfied. ted Violation(s) was/were discussed involving the insepection of your activities, as described to you by the insepetitive, and corrective action was or is be to exercise discretion, were satisfied.	e conditions of and observation entified. epector as non- epering taken, and a sing the following t	s they relate to radiation safety and to compliar your license. The inspection consisted of selectors by the inspector. The inspection findings a cited violations, are not being cited because the the remaining criteria in the NRC Enforcement grequirement(s) and Corrective Action(s): d/or attached, were in violation of NRC requirement to posting in accordance with 10 CFR 19.1	ective examinations are as follows: ey were self- t Policy, ments and are corrective actions is made date when full compliance Title	30 days, the actions described by me to the in accordance with the requirements of 10	e inspector will 0 CFR 2.201 (d	be taken to correct the violations identified. The corrective steps already taken, corrective steps ponse to NRC will be required, unless specific Signature	which will be taken,
LICENSEE'S REPRESENTATIVE NRC INSPECTOR	Héctor Bermúdez and others		/RA/	7/19/06	