Kymn,

Thanks for taking the time to stop in last week.

The revised Enclosure 1 to the acknowledgment letter is attached.

You also asked me if I could provide you with documentation on NRC policy with regard to SCWE. The following links are to the NRC website, and should be informative:

You also asked about the poster that was on the wall outside the receptionist's office. The name of the Native American woman was Charlotte D. Black Elk of the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation. The quote was ..."Know your culture. And live it."

Dave,

I appreciate your time yesterday. Thank you for going over the document with me and understanding the changes.

A favor: As I walked from the reception area, into the first hallway, there is a poster of a Native American woman and a short quote underneath....something about "culture" I believe. Can you please jot it down and forward to me.

I wish you and your family a wonderful Thanksgiving.

Kymn
