Dear Ms. Maceiras,

Thank you for your letter of July 24, 2006, concerning ARN's participation in the NRC's Cooperative Severe Accident Research Program (CSARP). Since receiving your letter, NRC staff from our Office of Research and staff from ARN have had several discussions regarding the specifics of the ARN proposal. As a result, we understand that ARN will pay a user fee to join in the CSARP program, in lieu of providing an in-kind research contribution. Our Office of Research is currently drafting an agreement which will outline the results of our recent discussions. While the formal agreements are being readied, we have informed ARN that it would be acceptable to attend the upcoming MELCOR Code Assessment Program meeting and user workshop as requested in your letter.

Currently, we plan to continue our discussions regarding ARN's participation in the CSARP program during the upcoming meeting of the Joint Standing Committee on Nuclear Energy Cooperation (JSCNEC) to be held the week of October 2, 2006, in Washington, D.C. Staff from the NRC's Office of International Programs and Office of Research are planning to attend the JSCNEC.

Sincerely,

/RA Margaret Doane for/

Janice Dunn Lee, Director
Office of International Programs
